

FCC, please know that my family strongly opposes the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. We do enough work during the day, please help keep the short amount of time spent together uninterrupted and do not allow the CBA to win their challenge.